Pray for . . . the Sick of Our Parish

Father, hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need. Amid mental and physical suffering may they find consolation in your healing presence. We ask this through the Lord Jesus Who healed those who believed. Amen.

The Most Holy Trinity
 June 7, 2009

Go . . . and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
 -- Matthew 28:19

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF OUR FAITH

Today is a day simply to ponder the fact that in baptism we were claimed by God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The first reading from Deuteronomy prompts us to fix in our hearts the truth that God is the Lord of both heaven and earth and there is no other god. Saint Paul reminds us that, because we received the Spirit of adoption in baptism, we are now children of God. In the Gospel Jesus charges us with the responsibility to make other disciples. These realities make today's solemnity a day of praise, adoration, and responsibility. It is a fitting day to thank God for the absolutely free gift of faith that we were given in baptism. It is also a day to ask God for strength to take on the responsibility of sharing that faith with others.

MAKE DISCIPLES OF ALL NATIONS

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading -- The Lord is God in the heavens above and on earth below and there is no other (Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40).

Psalm -- Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own (Psalm 33).

Second Reading -- You received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" (Romans 8:14-17)

Gospel -- Baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:16-20).

Rublev's Icon of the Trinity

The icon of the Trinity was painted around 1410 by Andrei Rublev

It depicts the three angels who visited Abraham at the Oak of Mamre - but is often interpreted as an icon of the Trinity.

It is sometimes called the icon of the Old Testament Trinity.

The image is full of symbolism - designed to take the viewer into the Mystery of the Trinity.

C.S. Lewis once said that “to love at all is to be vulnerable. Love anything and your heart will be wrung, possibly broken.”

Jesus will never leave us during these times of emptiness and loneliness. He never abandons us and is, in fact, nearer to us than ever when we mourn.

The stark reality of painful separations can be a lot for the human spirit to bear—especially when we try to carry this burden without the help of Our Lord. However, by embracing the reality of painful separations with the Heart of Christ, we learn how to let go of what needs letting go and we re-learn how to love.

In this month of June, let us turn to the Sacred Heart of Jesus for comfort. Let us learn from the Sacred Heart of Jesus how to be vulnerable, how to mourn, and how to love.

Sacred Heart Novena

NOVENA DATES: June 10-18

FEAST DAY: June 19

O Lord Jesus Christ, to Thy Most Sacred Heart I confide this intention (mention your request). Only look upon me, then do what Thy Heart inspires. Let Thy Sacred Heart decide.

I count on Thee...I trust in Thee...I throw myself on Thy Mercy, Lord Jesus! Thou wilt not fail me.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in Thee
Sacred Heart of Jesus, I believe in Thy Love for me.
Sacred Heart of Jesus, Thy Kingdom come.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I have asked Thee for many favors, but I earnestly implore this one.

Take it, place it in Thy open, broken Heart, and when the Eternal Father looks upon it, covered with Thy Precious Blood, He will not refuse it. It will no longer be my prayer, but Thine, O Jesus.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in Thee. Let me never be confounded. Amen.

(Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be)

Compendium Corner

#44. What is the central mystery of Christian faith and life?

The central mystery of Christian faith and life is the mystery of the Most Blessed Trinity. Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

#45. Can the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity be known by the light of human reason alone?

God has left some traces of his Trinitarian being in creation and in the Old Testament but his inmost being as the Holy Trinity is a mystery which is inaccessible to reason alone or even to Israel's faith before the Incarnation of the Son of God and the sending of the Holy Spirit. This mystery was revealed by Jesus Christ and it is the source of all the other mysteries.
