The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
 June 14, 2009

The cup of salvation I will take up,
 and I will call upon the name of the LORD.
 -- Psalm 116:13

PRECIOUS BLOOD

On this solemnity we focus our attention on the Body and Blood of Christ. We listen to the story of the renewal of the old covenant, which Moses sealed by splashing the blood of animals on the altar of sacrifice, as well as on the people. Jesus, whose blood is the blood of the new covenant, shed that precious blood on the cross, saving us from sin and promising us everlasting life. Blood is the life source that courses through our bodies. The precious blood of Christ is the life source for our spirits. Today may we, like the psalmist, offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Lord, whose body and blood strengthens us to bring the Good News to everyone we meet.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading -- This is the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you (Exodus 24:3-8).

Psalm -- I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord (Psalm 116).

Second Reading -- Christ is the mediator of a new covenant; his blood will cleanse our consciences (Hebrews 9:11-15).

Gospel -- This is my body. This is my blood (Mark 14:12-16, 22-26).

PARISH FAITH LIFE

HEARTFELT

I would rather say five words devoutly with my heart than five thousand which my soul does not relish with affection and understanding.

--St. Edmund the Martyr

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The origins of today's solemnity lie in thirteenth-century Belgium. In those days, people seldom received Holy Communion, and never the chalice. A nun in a troubled convent, Juliana of Liège, devoted her life to stirring up love for the Eucharist, lobbying for a feast day to honor the Blessed Sacrament with Masses and processions.

Juliana may have been inspired by the Ascension Day processions in nearby Bruges. Crusaders brought a treasure home to Bruges from Constantinople in 1204: a reliquary said to contain a cloth from Joseph of Arimathea with which he had helped prepare the body of Jesus for burial. The stain on the cloth was said to be the holy blood itself, and so the people of Bruges built a great basilica to house the relic. Bruges became a great center of pilgrimage because of this treasure, and the procession of the Holy Blood is still one of the greatest festivals in Belgium today. The bishop carries the relic through the narrow streets, and the people wear medieval costumes and act out scenes from the Bible.

--Rev. James Field

Compendium Corner

#282. How is Christ present in the Eucharist?

Jesus Christ is present in the Eucharist in a unique and incomparable way. He is present in a true, real and substantial way, with his Body and his Blood, with his Soul and his Divinity. In the Eucharist, therefore, there is present in a sacramental way, that is, under the Eucharistic species of bread and wine, Christ whole and entire, God and Man.

#282. What is the meaning of transubstantiation?

Transubstantiation means the change of the whole substance of bread into the substance of the Body of Christ and of the whole substance of wine into the substance of his Blood. This change is brought about in the Eucharistic prayer through the efficacy of the word of Christ and by the action of the Holy Spirit. However, the outward characteristics of bread and wine, that is the "Eucharistic species," remain unaltered.

From the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, p.84.

Catholics Confront Global Poverty

This nationwide effort, inspired by Pope Benedict XVI's 2009 World Day of Peace Message "Fighting Poverty to Build Peace," calls on one million Catholics to "confront global poverty." In a little over two months since the initiative was launched, more than 145,500 Catholics have become engaged in the effort, including 32 dioceses, 75 parishes, 27 religious communities, and 24 schools. If you haven't joined the yet, please sign up today. You can do so as individuals and groups (parishes, schools, etc.). Invite others to sign up as well at: www.usccb.org/sdwp/globalpoverty/

Explore this website for ideas about how you can defend human life and dignity by learning about poverty, educating others, and advocating for solutions that reflect the values of Catholic social teaching.
