Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you.
-- John 6:53

THIS EUCHARISTIC FEAST

Some things about human nature don't change, even over the course of centuries. When we celebrate a holiday, we have a meal; when we celebrate a significant event, we have a feast. In today's first reading, Lady Wisdom is setting a feast, a sign of celebrating the covenant that Israel has with God. Israel's central remembrance of its saving Exodus covenant is the Passover meal. So it is natural--and not coincidental--that the Christian celebration of the new covenant sealed by the blood of Christ on the cross happens at a meal, our Eucharist, offered first by Jesus in the context of Passover remembrance. It is easy for us, sometimes, to forget the very long and rich religious and human origins of our eucharistic feasting on the bread and cup that are the Body and Blood of Jesus. Today, and for the next few Sundays that we hear the "Bread of Life" discourse from John, let us bring to mind the loving covenant that God makes with us, and be filled with great joy at this marvelous feast that we have come to attend!

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading -- Forsake foolishness that you may live; advance in the way of understanding (Proverbs 9:1-6).
Psalm -- Taste and see the goodness of the Lord (Psalm 34).
Second Reading -- Live as wise persons trying to understand what is the will of the Lord, filled with the Spirit and giving thanks always (Ephesians 5:15-20).
Gospel -- Jesus says, "I am the living bread . . . whoever eats this bread (my flesh) will live forever" (John 6:51-58).

A MARRIAGE MOMENT

Marriage is like owning a car. Preventive maintenance (enrichment, paying attention to the little grumblings, counseling before it is broken) can save a big repair bill later. Besides it's more fun to have your marriage run smoothly. Regular tune ups are the secret.
