Special Collection—October 24—World Mission Sunday

World Mission Sunday was established by Pope Pius XI in 1926. In a world where so much divides us, World Mission rejoices in our unity as missionaries and it provides an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the suffering and the poor in the more than 1,150 mission dioceses throughout the developing world. Please support the work of missionaries who bring the “Good News” of Jesus to faraway places—to Africa, Asia, to the Pacific Islands, and the remote regions of Latin America.

FOR THOSE WHO PERSEVERE

There is a slight but real shift in scriptural focus for the last few weeks of the liturgical year. For many weeks we have been hearing what it means to be a faithful disciple. Now we will focus on the reward that awaits those who persevere on the long journey of faith. This Sunday we hear that impartial justice will be done in the courts of our eternal judge.

First, Sirach teaches us that the “God of justice . . . hears the cry of the oppressed” and “the one who serves God willingly” (Sirach 35:12, 13, 16). Then we hear Paul echo what the psalmist proclaims, “When the just cry out, the Lord hears them . . . and those who are crushed in spirit he saves” (Psalm 34:18, 19). Finally, the parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector who went to the temple to pray affirms that God will exalt all who cry out for mercy.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD is a God of justice who hears the cry of the oppressed, the orphan, the widow, the lowly (Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18).

Psalms — The Lord hears the cry of the poor (Psalm 34).

Second Reading — The crown of righteousness awaits me (2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18).

Gospel — The tax collector stood at a distance, beat his breast, and prayed, “O God, be merciful to me, a sinner” (Luke 18:9-14).
