GETTING TO KNOW US

Many of us, if we were asked whether or not the goal of our prayer and spiritual life was to get to know God better, would most likely answer, "Of course." But how many of us would think that another purpose of our prayer and spiritual life was for God to get to know us better? We think of God as the One who views the whole universe as a grain of sand. How can God get to know us better? The author of Wisdom reminds us that the Lord is a "lover of souls" (Wisdom 11:26)—and lovers, if they do nothing else, are always seeking out their beloved, wanting to know them better, knowing yet overlooking their faults, wanting nothing but to love them more and more.

In today's Gospel Jesus embodies this God whose imperishable spirit is in all things. Not only does he allow the extreme sinner Zaccheus to speak with him, but Jesus seeks him out, up in a tree. And then—losing his head with love for his brother in the faith of Abraham—Jesus becomes a part of his life by insisting that Zaccheus take him into his own house, the house he lived in through ill-gotten, sinful gains as a tax collector. Wisdom and Luke both tell us that God is willing to walk right into our frail sinfulness in order to know us better, love us more, and bring us in forgiveness to salvation.

PERSONAL LIFEInforming Catholic voters

The U.S. bishops remind us: "In the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation." To help parishioners become informed on where candidates stand on key issues, the Florida Catholic Conference has polled those running for state and federal office. To see how candidates on the Nov. 2 general election ballot responded to the Candidate Questionnaire, visit www.flacathconf.org.

Thou Art a Priest Forever

Fr. Jean Baptiste Henri Lacordaire
 To live in the midst of the world;
 Without wishing its pleasures;
 To be a member of each family,
 Yet belonging to none;
 To share all suffering;
 To penetrate all secrets;
 To heal all wounds;
 To go from people to God
 And offer Him their Prayers;
 To return from God to people
 To bring pardon and hope;
 To have a heart of fire for charity;
 And a heart of bronze for chastity;
 To teach and to pardon,
 Console and bless always—

SAINT MARTIN DE PORRES (1579-1639)
November 3

An old illustration pictures Martin de Porres, finger to his lips—“Shhhh!”—as several mice peek out of sacristy vestment drawers, preparing to join a rodent “procession” following him out of church! Martin’s rescue of these unwelcome “guests,” and statues depicting him, broom in hand, feeding a dog, cat, bird, and mouse from the same dish symbolize his life and sanctity. Initially denied entrance by the Dominicans because of “mixed race” (Spanish father, Panamanian mother), Martin cherished society’s marginalized. For him, menial tasks, lovingly done, were sacred. Great and lowly alike feasted on his charity. Enemies were reconciled by this “poor mulatto” (his self-description), kind even to those whose racism demeaned him. Apprenticed to a surgeon-barber in his youth—thus patron saint of hair stylists and public health providers—Martin dispensed healing and dignity to Lima’s poorest, serving in them the Christ he adored for hours in the Blessed Sacrament. By the time he died, all Peru called him “Martin the Charitable,” a title even those of us who will never be called “saint” might still aspire to.

Living Every Day with Passion and Purpose

One Day Retreat with Matthew Kelly
Blessed Trinity Catholic Church, Ocala

November 16, 2010

Call 861-2770 to register.

With a fresh perspective and youthful approach, Matthew Kelly brings us an energizing message that springs forth from his passion for life and Catholicism. Matthew Kelly awakens our hearts and minds with a vision that sets us free to practically apply the genius of Catholicism to every aspect of our lives, including: work, marriage, personal finances, prayer & spirituality, dating, health & well-being, parenting and community involvement.
